Would you recommend this software? Why?

Quickbooks

- > Yes - comprehensive and works with accountant very well
- > Yes, very easy to use and can generate multiple reports
- > Yes, it is very easy to use
- > I have used Quicken at home, so am familiar with that entry format. Also, my sister and brother-in-law are accountants and they, along with our conference accountant, recommended it
- > Yes, Quickbooks is very detailed and offers great reporting features. It also works well with our annual audit. The auditors can import our data into their program for analysis

Quicken

- > Very easy to use and gives great overviews of income/expenses by year. Easy to view historical data also
- > I haven't used the others, so I have no means of comparison, but it has been easy to use
- > Sure, very simple to use

Peachtree

- > Yes - easy to use - provides the reports and info needed for day-to-day and end-of-the-year reports

Excel

- > We use an Excel spreadsheet that provides the same information as contained in accounting reports generated by the campus accounting system where we are located. The Excel report gives us flexibility in presenting information in a more useful format for management purposes
- > As long as expenses are simple

Microsoft Money /Excel

- > Microsoft Money is simple and okay but I expect there are better. I use excel in conjunction with Microsoft Money to share info with membership more easily

N/A

- > We hire an accountant but they use quickbooks
- > I use nothing. Just myself and calculator

Custom Developed Software

- > No Works within the cuny system only
